MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Cashing of Credit Union Checks

Messrs. [REDACTED] indicated met on 28 May 1962 to discuss above subject. Mr. [REDACTED] indicated that from a legal point of view, it was questionable whether Agent-Cashier funds should be utilized to cash Credit Union checks. Various alternatives respecting funding and escorting were discussed, but no positive conclusions arrived at. It was agreed, however, that Messrs. [REDACTED] would contact the Brink's armored car service and obtain rates and particulars from them with a view to both the Agency and the Credit Union utilizing the Brink's service instead of Office of Security escort service for transporting cash.
